Green Hays, Executor of the estate of John Hays deceased, and others
vs.
W. T. Hays, Defendant.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Lawrence Circuit Court rendered at its regular January term 1917, in the above style case, I will proceed to offer for sale at the Court house door in Louisa, Lawrence County, Kentucky, to the highest and best bidder, at public auction, at 1 o'clock P. M., on May 21st, 1917, (that being County Court day) the following real estate of the said John Hays deceased, and known as the home place of John Hays, (deceased,) situated on Georges Creek in Lawrence County, Kentucky, and being the same in which Elizabeth Hays by the will of John Hays was given a life estate, said will is recorded in will book 2 page 361 in Lawrence County Clerk's Office, and bounded as follows: On the North by the lands of Sarah Hays, on the East by the lands of Sarah Hays and on the south by the lands of Major Hays, and on the West by the lands of Lucy Justice, number of acres not known, supposed to be about 35 acres. Said land is to be sold and divided as follows: One-tenth to Laura Hays Nickell and nine-tenths to Major Hays.

Sale will be made on credit of six months, and the purchaser will be required to execute bond payable to the undersigned Commissioner with approved security and a lien reserved on the property for said debt, interest and cost, and to have the force and effect of a judgment.

W. M. SAVAGE
Master Commissioner.

Commissioner's Sale.

John W. Towler, Plaintiff
vs.
Jeff Collinsworth and Laura Collinsworth, Defendants.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Lawrence Circuit Court, rendered at its special term on December 2, 1915, in the above case, I shall proceed to offer for sale, at the Court house door in Louisa, Lawrence County, Kentucky, to the highest and best bidder at public auction, at 1 o'clock P. M., on May 21st, 1917, (that being County Court day) upon a credit of six and twelve months, the following described real estate which lies on Cat Creek in Lawrence County, Kentucky, in precinct number 17, and is bounded on the north by the lands of Noah Ellis, and on the west by the lands of J. Shortridge, Roy Jones and Adam Horman, on the south and east it is bounded by Cat Creek and the lands of A. J. Scott and is the same land which was conveyed by deed from John W.

Collinsworth, the deed for which is recorded in deed book 32, page 222 in the Lawrence County Clerk's records, to make the sum of One Thousand ($1000.00) Dollars with interest from September 15, 1915, and the cost of this suit and sale and all cost in this action. The land will be sold subject to a prior lien of Lindsey Fannin for $1800.00 with interest and cost and the purchaser under this sale will have the right to pay to Lindsey Fannin his debt interest and cost and take conveyance of this property subject to the rights of Jeff Collinsworth, the defendant, to redeem same, if in fact he has the right to redeem same.

The purchaser will be required to execute bonds payable to said Commissioner with approved security and a lien is reserved on said property for said debt, interest and cost and said bonds shall bear legal interest and have force and effect of a judgment.

W. M. SAVAGE
Master Commissioner.

Carroll Miller, general manager of the Coal Products Manufacturing Company, of Aurora, Ill., and Karl F. Schoew were in Logan county where they have been looking over the properties at Ethel recently purchased by Mr. Miller's company. The purpose of the company is to modernize the plant at Ethel and erect new and more comfortable homes for the miners and do whatever is practicable to make the location an attractive one to labor.

MARION LAWRENCE GIVES PRAISE TO KENTUCKY PLAN

GO-TO-SUNDAY-SCHOOL DAY
MOVEMENT ENDORSED BY GENERAL SECRETARY OF INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY-SCHOOL ASSOCIATION.

MAY SIXTH IS THE DATE SET

Started in Blue Grass State Less Than Fourteen Years Ago Movement Has Spread to Fourteen States and is Awakening Conscience of People.

"Kentucky has blessed the way," Mr. Lawrence writes, "for the rest of the country along many lines, civil, political and religious. History will show, however, that she never did anything more far-reaching in its effect upon our nation than the introduction of 'Go-to-Sunday-school Day.' We take off our hats to Kentucky!"

"While the plan is not yet four years old, already fourteen states and provinces are in line and have observed 'Go-to-Sunday-school day.' They are Kentucky, Georgia, New Hampshire, Saskatchewan, Nebraska, Alabama, Arkansas, Mississippi, South Carolina, Michigan, Delaware, Maine, New Jersey and Tennessee.

"It is a great thing to arouse the conscience of a whole state and bring thousands and hundreds of thousands to the performance of a noble deed at a given time. This is exactly what the 'Go-to-Sunday-school day' does.

The greatest step in any man's life is the step which begins the permanent habit of church-going, and there is no better place to inaugurate this habit than in attendance upon the Sunday-school.

"The Sunday-schools of Kentucky do far more to make it a good state to live in than all the laws on her statute books. We are learning and learning fast, that formation is better than reformation, and that the hope of any state or country is wrapped up in the welfare of its youth.

"Congratulations to the Sunday-school workers of Kentucky under the leadership of their noble General Secretary. May God grant His richest blessing and make this the best 'Go-to-Sunday-school Day' you ever had."

ESPECIALLY PREPARED PROGRAMS FOR MAY 6

Kentucky Sunday-Schools To Be Supplied By The State Association Upon Request.

A special program for Go-to-Sunday-school Day, May 6th, has been prepared and will be furnished free in such quantities as needed to any Sunday-school in Kentucky upon request to the Kentucky Sunday-school Association, 713 Louisville Trust Building, Louisville, Ky.

Order of Worship and Instruction. Call to Worship—Superintendent—Serve the Lord with Gladness; Come before His presence with singing.

Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, And into His courts with praise. Hymn—O Worship the King, School Prayer—Pastor.

The Christian's Preparation. Responsive Scripture Reading—Ephesians 6:10-18. Superintendent—Be strong in the Lord, and in the power of His might.

School—Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. Supt.—For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

School—Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness and your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace. Supt.—Above all taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, it, which is the word of God.

School—Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance. Hymn—Soldiers of Christ, arise.

The Christian's Foes. Supt.—Are our foes strong or weak? Are there many or few against us? School—The forces of evil are many and none of them is weak. But let us go forward. The Lord is with us, even God who giveth us the victory. Fear them not.

Supt.—Where are the strongholds of the enemy? Where do they dwell? School—In ourselves when we have not the spirit of Christ, loving one another; for if we love one another God abideth in us, and His love is perfected in us.

Supt.—Have our foes other strongholds? School—In our Sunday-school when our work is not the best. Supt.—Study to show yourselves approved unto God, workmen that need not be ashamed, in what other places are the forces of our foe?

School—In our state so long as we permit any evil. Sin is a reproach to any people.

Supt.—Are there yet other places where the foe dwells? School—In our nation wherever there is greed, oppression or injustice.

Supt.—What hath God required of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy and to walk humbly with thy God? Hymn—My soul, be on thy guard.

The Sunday-school Army in Kentucky. Supt.—What is the strength of the Sunday-school army in Kentucky? School—There are more than one-half a million members of the white Protestant Sunday-schools.

Supt.—What one organization represents this whole army? School—The Kentucky Sunday-school Association.

Supt.—What is this Association doing in the battle against the forces of evil? School—Each year it is bringing thousands more to the Sunday-school where the Word of God is taught. Its goal is the open Bible in the hands of a competent teacher brought to every man, woman and child in Kentucky.

Supt.—Is this Association doing anything to strengthen our work against the foe in our own school? School—Training classes, training schools, institutes, conventions and conferences are conducted for all who will come to learn of the approved in methods, lesson material, equipment and organization.

Supt.—Is the Sunday-school army fighting any evil in our state? School—The motto of the Kentucky Sunday-school Association is a greater and better Kentucky and this is to be accomplished by having greater and better Sunday-schools. It is forging a chain of Christian fellowship, which is bringing people of the state to work together. It is giving temperance instruction, preparing the way for ridding our state of all the evils of intemperance. It is enlisting and training Christian leaders for community and state work.

Supt.—Is the Sunday-school army fighting America's greatest foe? School—Today all of the Sunday-schools of our state are asked to give thoughtfully this pledge of allegiance to our flag:

"I pledge allegiance to my flag and to my country for which I stand; one nation, indivisible with liberty and justice to all."

Hymn—Onward, Christian Soldiers. Lesson Taught. Reports and Announcements. Hymn—Awake, my soul, stretch every nerve. Prayer.

DENOMINATIONAL LEADERS

Unite in Call for Go-to-Sunday-School Day.

May 6, 1917, is Kentucky's fourth Go-to-Sunday-school Day. All Sunday-schools throughout the state are asked to observe the day.

The Sunday-school workers are called upon to unite in a movement to give to every person in the state an invitation to attend Sunday-school on that day; to provide suitable classes for those who attend and teachers well equipped to have charge of these classes; to make the program of the day worshipful and instructive; to make every effort possible to enlist the visitors on that day as permanent members.

We, therefore, call upon all the Sunday-school officers, teachers and members to enter heartily into this campaign.

1. Pray for God's blessing upon all who are guiding and leading in this movement, and upon all the Sunday-school work in the state.

2. Study carefully the folder issued by the Kentucky Sunday-school Association and as far as seems wise follow the plans there outlined.

3. Do your full part to make this a great day for all of the Sunday-schools of the state.

May God use this movement for the extension of the Kingdom of Christ. This call is signed by:

Rev. E. Y. Mullins, D. D., President of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky.

Mr. Walter E. Frasco, Superintendent of the Kentucky Christian Bible School Association, Louisville, Ky.

Rev. Theodore Mayer, General Secretary of the Board of Sunday-schools of the German Evangelical Synod of North America, St. Louis, Mo.

The Rt. Rev. Chas. E. Woodcock, Bishop of Diocese of Kentucky of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Louisville, Ky.

The Rt. Rev. Lewis W. Burton, Bishop of the Diocese of Lexington of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Lexington, Ky.

Mr. Chas. P. Wiles, Editor of Lutheran Publication Society, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Rev. S. S. Walz, D. D., Lutheran Church, Louisville, Ky.

Rev. Wm. Jones, Secretary of Kentucky Sunday-school Board of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Louisville, Ky.

Rev. E. B. Chappell, D. D., Editor of the General Sunday-school Board of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Nashville, Tenn.

Mr. C. J. Nugent, Field Secretary of the Middle Division of the Sunday-school Board of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Louisville, Ky.

Rev. Gilbert Glass, D. D., Secretary of the Committee of Publication and Sabbath-school Work of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

Rev. Aquilla Webb, D. D., Moderator of the Synod of Kentucky of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

Rev. Robt. Watts Veech, D. D., Secretary of Religious Education for the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.
